

I think that further deregulation of broadcast ownership would be a grave mistake; as it is the consolidation of the media is already nearing, if not already a monopoly, and I firmly believe that this hinders democracy and freedom.